

Updates on Flora of the Snow Mountain Wilderness Project

Map from Heckard and Hickman 1985

- Habitats
- Interesting taxa
- Future directions

Jen Pagel, Harry D. Thiers Herbarium & Cantley Lab at San Francisco State University

Snow Mountain Habitats

- Scree ridgetops and slopes
- Red and white fir forest
- Springs and meadows
- Serpentine barrens
- Rock outcrops
- Oak-pine woodlands
- Chapparal

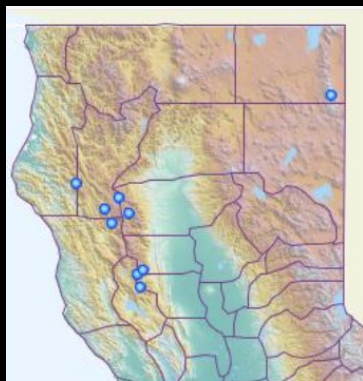

Interesting Taxa

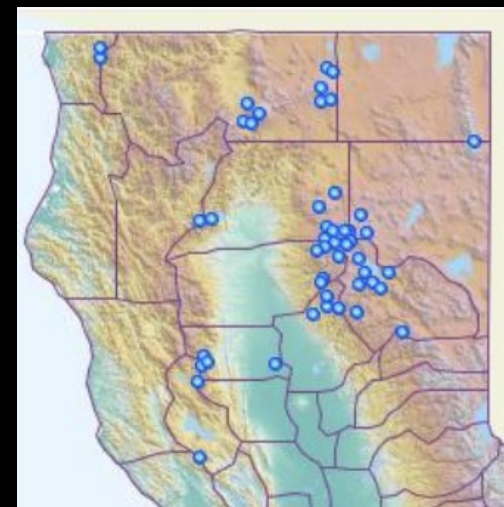

Lomatium ciliolatum
- high elevation form
- corolla typically yellow

Galium grayanum var. nanum

Cycladenia humilis var. humilis

Special Status / Northern CA Endemics

Epilobium nivium, CRPR 1B.2
- N. Coast Range endemic
- S. range limit excluding Goat Mtn.

Eriogonum nervulosum, CRPR 1B.2
- Type locality

Anisocarpus scabridus, CRPR 1B.3
- Endemic to N. Coast and S. Cascade Ranges
- S. range limit

Asclepias solanoana (Serpentine milkweed, CRPR 4.2)

Future directions & thank you

iNaturalist Project Page:
<https://www.inaturalist.org/projects/flora-of-the-snow-mountain-wilderness>

